Approval of Minutes

Minutes from December 15, 2021 meeting. Brown set motion to approve, Tripp 2nd motion. Unanimous vote, Motion Carried.

New Business

- Gravel bids, send out earlier than last year: Aaker sent notice to Brandon Valley Journal to collect bids and have available for March 22, 2022 meeting.
- Garbage in ditches: Brown found a lot of garbage in ditch near residence. A person is in question for dumping items and the Minnehaha County Sherriff was contacted and is investigating. Marv's sanitary cleaned up garbage.
- Roozenboom 259th road treatment prep request: Jerry & Judy Roozenboom and a few neighbors are interested in treating 259th street near their property. Brown & Tripp explained the process of getting a bid for treatment, contacting neighbors to pay for bill and then contacting the township to help prep the road for treatment.
- Nelson culvert request: Randy Nelson requested approach from field west of Chestnut Road and north of new water tower. Brown inspected area and noted no culvert was needed. Brown approved approach request.
- Marijuana law questions: Inquiries have been made by a company from Michigan starting a growing center in Brandon Township. Current state laws are not defined well for townships and marijuana growing and distribution. Brown made motion that Brandon Township would not grant and licenses for growing or distributing marijuana until state laws have been more clearly defined for townships. Tripp 2nd motion. Unanimous vote, Motion Carried.
- Opt out options: Tripp and Brown discussed options on opting out this year. Both agreed they felt that bank accounts were in good standings and not needed. Will be put to vote at annual meeting on March 1, 2022
- New grader update: Brown said he spoke with new grader company, and we can expect the grader to start transit on April 1st, 2022.
- Annual financial documents review: Herll not able to attend sent documents ahead of meeting. All looked in good standing with board.
- Review agenda for annual meeting: Aaker reviewed annual township meeting agenda. No additions were made.

Old Business

- Update on road conditions/culverts: nothing to report

Adjournment

- Tripp made motion to adjourn at 7:38pm. Brown 2nd motion. Unanimous vote, Motion Carried
